CAN'T BE "INFLUENCED."

Thomas Gantley, a High-minded Irishman, Cannot be Bought With Official Position.

To Whom It May Concern: The position of Vice-President of the Democratic Club at Helena was unsolicited by me, and will in no wise affect my vote. I shall cast my ballot for Cochran and Byron, the Single X Democratic Club of Helena to the contrary notwithstanding.

THOMAS GANTLEY.

MORANBURG.

Andrew Cochran has been getting in some good work the past few days.

Tom Warren, colored, is building a new house and still there's room for more.

Miss Janie Moran of the Bottom spent the day Thursday with Mrs. J. W. Stephens.

John Schott and Miss Sue Brittain talk of leaving for their home at Flat Creek next Monday.

Elder C. S. Lucas of Maysville preached at the Christian Church last Wednesday night. Everybody pleased with him.

The work of painting the schoolhouse commenced in earnest last Thursday evening. Tom Stephens, Ed Burnett and William Leonard gave it the priming coat.

The meeting at the Christian Church still goes on. Up to Thursday night there were two additions and one renewed his vows to the church. Brother Dugman preached one of his favorite sermons to a good congregation on Thursday night. The prospect for a good meeting is very encouraging at this writing.

On Wednesday morning as Dr. Coburn of Germantown was passing the Postoffice driving a high spirited horse there came very near being a bad accident. The horse, without giving the slightest warning to the Doctor, kicked with all his might with both feet, barely missing the face of a young lady who was riding in the buggy, and striking the Doctor on the right arm rendering it useless for the time. But by the timely aid of some friends the harness which was broken in several places was patched up and they went on their way thankful that it was no worse.

The police think they have a clew to the murderer of Charles R. Barrett who was found dead in the Ashland Park a few days ago.

"Look Before You Leap."

Select the best place to buy Guns, Loaded and Empty Shells, Primers, Wads, Caps, Shot, Hunting Goggles, Cartridge Vests, (something new,) Belts, DuPonts Powder and a full line of Loading Implements. You will find all of the above at the Frank Owens Hardware Co., very cheap. They will satisfy you if you will call on them.

HERE is a specimen from a Tennessee Mulatto: "Perry county has a phenomenon in Miss Addie Polk, a girl 9 years old. She is gifted with the power to heal the sick, make the blind see, the deaf hear and the lame walk, merely by the laying on of hands. The people are flocking to her by the hundreds and many miraculous cures are reported. John Wane was paralyzed for twenty years and now walks. John Mason was blind seven years and now sees. Other cures equally startling are daily occurring. She refuses money."

From Danville, Ill., Mrs. H. J. Nabors writes: "I have been using your remedies for scrofula and am greatly benefited. My back was almost one solid sore. Two boxes of Dr. Hale's Household Ointment healed it entirely."

From Olive Hill, Ky., Mrs. M. J. Matney writes May 13th, 1892: "My daughter has been afflicted with erysipelas in her eyes from infancy. She is now past 13 years old and one 25 cent box has cured her." It costs no more to get the best. This is the best ointment in the world for general use. Get a box at Power & Reynolds's drugstore.

KENTUCKY WEATHER REPORT.

What We May Expect Between This Time and To-Morrow Evening.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—FAIR; Blue—RAIN or SNOW; With Black ABOVE—TWO WARMER GROW; If Black's HEAD—COLDER 'TILL SET; Unless Black's shown—no change we'll see.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening.

JUDGE W. H. ROLT.

He is all Right Up to Date, and Don't You Forget It.

Hon. Matt O'Doherty has returned to Louisville after a tour through the state and has been interviewed by The Louisville Commercial. He said:

"In returning from Virginia I stopped at Ashland, Ky., which is in the District in which Judge Holt is a candidate for re-election as Judge of the Court of Appeals on the Republican ticket. He is certain to be elected. He will poll the unanimous Republican vote and will get one-half of the Democratic vote. His career on the bench, combined with his conceded ability and integrity, have made him invincible. Mr. Cochran, the Republican candidate for the Circuit Judgeship, is also a sure winner. He is equally popular with Democrats and Republicans. The same can be said of young Mr. Byron, who is running for Commonwealth's Attorney. The Congressional candidate, Mr. McCartney, has made a splendid canvass, and I consider his election very probable, although his District has been heretofore largely Democratic."

"At Maysville I spoke to a crowded house, which shows that the Republicans are alert."

American Cholera.

From The Daily Recluse, Whatcom, Wash.: "T. C. Burnett, the Democratic candidate for Sheriff, was taken violently ill at Clearbrook. He had all the symptoms of Asiatic cholera, and for an hour or two it was feared he would die. They finally gave him a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which revived him until a physician arrived." That is precisely what the manufacturers of that medicine recommend for cholera. Send for a physician but give their medicine until the physician arrives. If cholera becomes prevalent in this country next summer this preparation will be in great demand because it can always be depended upon. For sale by Power & Reynolds, Druggists.
